- There is a litter pick on Saturday 17th litter pick starting 10.45am in the car park.
- In the last 4 to 6 weeks, after 11pm at night cars race down Forge Road then on to Cwm Crawnon Road. Residents are loosing sleep.
- A black VW golf, with 3 hooded occupants approach farm buildings and then leave. The registration number will be sought.
- The parking area on Coed-yr-ynys Road is not appropriate for larger cars, their boots stick out into the road causing a problem to passing traffic. September agenda item.

- New seating for Cae Porth progresses. The seats should arrive on 20th August and the slabs on 29th/30th August.
- The bridge will get a strim from a volunteer councillor soon.
- Dogs should be kept on a lead near traffic.
- The lights on the riverbridge are not working at the moment (up to Tuesday 13th) It seems that drivers are more courteous at the moment this is being monitored.
- There is road surface is degraded near the pinch points on the Llangynidr side. There is a deep pot hole there.
- The dog bins are not sorted yet.
- Green Man Festival starts Thursday 15th August, many thanks to the people who distributed the bridge passes to residents. The Community Council has had some positive feed back about it.
